

The Grand National Archery Society

Code of Conduct

The following Code of Conduct has been drawn up for the benefit of all members, as a reminder of their obligations to the Society and its members when participating in and administering the sport of archery.

Each member of the Society is committed to:

1. Obeying the GNAS Rules of Shooting, Law's and Policies and such other guidelines as the Society publishes.
2. Behaving in a manner that upholds the dignity and reputation of the Society and its members, including junior members and vulnerable adults.
3. Acting in fairness and with integrity when dealing with the Society and its members.
4. Avoiding the abuse of power or trust arising from position or status within the Society.
5. Using archery skills and equipment in a responsible way so as to avoid nuisance, damage or injury.
6. Never taking advantage of, or abusing, any other member of the Society, including especially, junior members and vulnerable adults.
